PIANO TEAM IN CONCERT . . . Anthony and Joseph Paratore (left to right), who some music critics call the best duo-piano team on the music scene today, will bring their world-acclaimed talents to the stage of GSU's Music Recital Hall, Friday, July 25, at 8 p.m. The Paratore Brothers made their professional debut as duo-pianists with Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops in the early 1970s. Part of the Classical Music Showcase series, admission to the concert is $2 for the general public, $1 for GSU faculty, staff, and Alumni Association members, and senior citizens, and free to GSU students. For information, call x2464.

NEW APPOINTMENT . . . Dr. Kenneth Whittemore has been appointed Program Coordinator for Health Services Administration, according to Dr. Robert Cornesky, Director of the School of Health Professions. Whittemore was formerly national marketing specialist in human services and rehabilitation with the Professional Institute of the American Management Association.

AS REPORTED . . . in last week's Faze I, President Goodman-Malamuth underwent surgery last Monday, July 14. The surgery was a complete success--no complications. Although Mrs. Goodman-Malamuth reports that the President is more than a little uncomfortable, his recovery is proceeding satisfactorily and he is in fine spirits.

IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND . . . the GSU Youth Theatre production of "Steal Away Home," arrive 30 minutes early and hear a half-hour of entertainment by the Beacon Hill Mission Baptist Church choir. The play is the story of escape from slavery via the underground railroad. Saturday matinee performances, July 19 and 26, will begin at 2 p.m. The choir will begin singing at 1:30 p.m. Sunday performances, July 20 and 27, will begin at 7 p.m.; the choir begins at 6:30 p.m. For information and reservations, call x2119.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT . . . Adlean Harris, UL, and Alma Vinyard, CAS, are seeking nominations for outstanding black women of the '20s and '30s to be included in a publication entitled "Oral Histories of Chicago Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era." Conducting the research under a mini-grant from GSU, they are seeking the names of black women who made outstanding contributions in politics, fine and performing arts, athletics, religion, and community services in Chicago from 1920 to 1940. Nominations should be sent to Alma Vinyard, CAS. For further information, contact Alma Vinyard, x2424, or Adlean Harris, x2332.

"ANYA AT 5" . . . A short film portraying "back stage" activities of a five-year-old girl's birthday, made by GSU student Jean de Segonzac under the direction of University Professor Marian Marzynski, has been nominated for the Best Student Film Academy Award after winning the Mid-West regional competition. The film will be presented by Chicago Public Television, Channel 11, as part of its "Image Union," Saturday, July 19, at 10 p.m.

GLOWING GRADS . . . Marilyn Germann, who received her bachelor's and master's degrees in nursing from GSU, has been appointed director of the new Community Health Care program at Ingalls Memorial Hospital in Harvey . . . Florine Robinson, a GSU Women's Studies graduate, has been promoted to manager of the Management and Sales Division at Illinois Bell. She was formerly the assistant manager of that division.

NEW EXTENSIONS . . . Janice Schluntz is now in the President's Office at x2339. Jean Dekker is now in the Physical Plant Operations Office at x2181.

HONORARY DOCTORATES . . . The Commencement Committee is soliciting nominations for recipients of the honorary doctorates for the June, 1981 Commencement. Recommendations to the President will be submitted in September. Please send names of nominees to Virginio Piucci, IR&P.

MESSAGES OF CHEER . . . can be mailed to Matt Poroli (PPO) who is in Room 570 at St. James Hospital in Chicago Heights, following a recent accident where he suffered third degree burns on his leg. Lu (BO) reports that Wednesday's extensive skin grafting surgery was successful and cards will be most welcome. Because of a steel brace which makes movement awkward, Matt is unable to receive telephone calls. He will be in St. James approximately another week and expects to return to work in October.

GSUings . . . ANA KONG (HLD) accepting an invitation to participate as a panelist in the symposium on "Traditional Values and Sex Roles in a Changing World," part of the International Conference of the East-West Center's Alumni Center in Honolulu, Hawaii, July 28-August 2. She will also be attending the Third Research Workshop of the TV and Sex-Role Socialization project under the sponsorship of the East-West Communication Institute (Honolulu). The workshop will assemble research participants from five countries (Japan, Korea, Phillipines, Britain and the U.S.) to discuss and review the data analysis stage of the project . . . WILLIE LUCAS (BO) leaving GSU July 16, to become a bank examiner with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

WHAT'S HAPPENING NEAR THE BARN? . . . Artist Jene Highstein, starting Monday, is creating a sculpture to be added to our current outdoor exhibit, courtesy of the GSU Foundation.

You may think you aren't cut out to be a Girl Scout volunteer because you don't have anything special to offer.

But the hundreds of Chicago girls who can never be Girl Scouts because there aren't enough leaders, will think it's pretty special if you just offer yourself. Your talent, guidance and friendship, a few hours a week, are all these girls need to explore the world and their place in it.

Leaders can be men or women of almost any age over 18. And when you accept a troop, we even have information to help you get things started.

Find out how special becoming a Girl Scout leader is. Just mail in the coupon, or phone 435-3810, today.

I may have something special to offer. Without obligation, please send me free literature telling how I can become a Girl Scout leader, assistant, or helper. Mail to: Miss Green, Girl Scouts of Chicago, 14 East Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois 60604.
