PEART'S "FALLING METEOR" HEADS FOR STATE STREET . . . Much to the surprise of many on campus, a crane appeared on the Governor's Patio on Wednesday. Jerry Peart's "Falling Meteor" was dismantled and shipped away. Where? Why? How long? The piece will be on display on the State Street Mall in Chicago's Loop for two months after which it will return home to the Nathan Manilow Sculpture Garden. The State Street Merchant's Association is sponsoring a two-month display of outdoor sculpture to dramatize and publicize the new State Street Mall. All of the Association's publicity concerning the "Falling Meteor" will name the Nathan Manilow Sculpture Garden, Governors State University as owner.

GSU ADMINISTRATORS . . . attending the fourth annual meeting of the Work-Education Council of the South Suburbs included: BPA Dean Robert Milam, Admissions Director Richard Pride, University Professor and Mrs. Chris Liebscher, and University Professor Andrew Petro. Governors State University President Leo Goodman-Malamuth, who was accompanied by Mrs. Goodman-Malamuth, served as a panel moderator. GSU's Community College Relations Coordinator Tom Deem was recognized for serving as vice president for membership. Senator Aldo DeAngelis, a GSU student, was one of the featured speakers at the recent dinner meeting.

THE GSU SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR . . . has recently been approved by the State Board of Education. The approval distinguishes Governors State University as the only public university in northeastern Illinois that is able to offer such a state-approved curriculum, according to Dr. Addison Woodward, chairman of the Division of Psychology and Counseling in HLD. Because of the formal approval, GSU graduates from this curriculum are now entitled to certification by application to the state without further testing. The Board praised GSU for employing a higher percentage of certified school psychologists on its faculty than any other institution with a state-approved curriculum in this field. Board members also expressed interest in the broad role envisioned by the GSU faculty for school psychologists. The faculty members prepare students for a consultative role with other professionals in the schools, rather than training them to be only testers.

THE COUNCIL OF DEANS . . . is hosting a reception for all AFT bargaining unit members on Saturday, October 11, at GSU from 3-5 p.m. It will be held in a tent between the outdoor Amphitheatre and the lake. Refreshments will be served. In case of rain, as late as 12 noon on Saturday, those planning to attend should call the GSU Info Line, 534-0033, to learn if the reception has been cancelled. The rain date will be Saturday, October 18.

NOTICE . . . Cars parked in the GSU parking lots will be ticketed if GSU parking decals are improperly displayed. The decals are not valid unless they are permanently affixed as detailed in the DPS instruction sheet.

THE GSU WOMEN'S CLUB . . . Family Picnic-Camp-Hayride is scheduled to begin at 4:30 p.m., Saturday, October 4, at Camp Manitowoc in Frankfort (on Sauk Trail, 1-1/4 miles before the turn-off, west of Harlem). The outing is $2 per person and open to all members and other GSU women who want to become members of the GSU Women's Club.

INTERPERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS . . . is the subject of research being conducted by Barbara Flowers, Provost's Office, and University Professor Roberta Bear, HLD. They are interested in interviewing men and women, either divorced or married, to obtain data for the study. Individual interviews should take approximately one hour and will include questions about psychological aspects of interpersonal relationships. Those interested in being interviewed or wishing further information, should call Barbara Flowers at x2343 or Roberta Bear at x2374 or x2354.

GRADING MANUAL DISTRIBUTED . . . The Registrar's Office, in collaboration with the Provost's Office, has sent new editions of the Grading Manual to full-time and part-time faculty members and to collegial offices. The 1980-81 edition attempts to clarify the University Grading Policy and related procedures. Faculty members who have not received a copy should contact the Registrar's Office.

GSUings . . . MICHAEL LEWIS (HLD) presenting a paper entitled "Training Counselors in Primary Prevention Skills" at the Southern Association for Counselor Education in Hot Springs, Arkansas, October 6-8 . . . JOAN LEWIS (UR) being named to the Board of Directors of the South Suburban YWCA . . . MARY TRUSS (PERS) speaking on "Self-Motivation" at the monthly meeting of the South Suburban Network, September 24 . . . Best wishes to HELEN LIPKE (CAS) who retired from the GSU staff September 30. She came to GSU April 17, 1972.
