10 NEW FULBRIGHT AWARDS . . . are being offered through the Council for International Exchange of Scholars for American scholars interested in Islamic civilization research. Research may be conducted in one or more relevant countries of Africa and Asia. Ten additional awards are offered to aid American scholars in conducting research in non-Islamic Africa. Minimum requirements include U. S. citizenship, a doctorate (or equivalent professional experience) and appropriate language proficiency for the research to be undertaken. For further information, call Lowell Culver (x2259) or write: Council for International Exchange of Scholars, Eleven Dupont Circle, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, Attn: Islamic Civilization or Africa Research.

"MIRACLES OF CHRISTMAS" . . . by Ned Rorem and "To Us a Child Is Born," (a short J. S. Bach cantata) will form part of the GSU Community-Chorale holiday program. Completing the program will be the GSU String Quartet performing the Kodaly First String Quartet, Op. 2. Vocal soloists have been chosen from the 41-voice Chorale and include Donna Lee Strukoff, mezzo-soprano; Henry Hunt, tenor; and Kurt Schutt, bass. The Chorale will be accompanied by a 20-piece orchestra, Francois D'Albert, concertmaster. The free concert will take place in the GSU Music Recital Hall on Sunday, December 7, at 4:00 p.m.

IT'S TIME TO THINK, . . . faculty, about materials you will want on reserve during the Winter '81 Trimester. Please submit your reserve lists by Monday, December 15, if you have not already done so. The sooner they are submitted to us, the sooner the materials will be ready for your students. Questions? Call x2333 or x2327.

HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES . . . are being offered by the Women's Resource Center and the School of Health Professions. The Women's Resource Center will be holding a party on Wednesday, December 10, from 4:30-6:30 p.m. in B Lounge. SHP is having an open house on Friday, December 12, 3:00-5:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to join the fun.

REMINDER . . . a Purchasing Colloquium will be held Wednesday, December 10, 9:30 a.m. to noon in Engbretson Hall for all interested employees. Workshops on Purchasing & Payment, Property Control, Central Stores & Central Duplicating will be offered, following a general session on New Procedures.

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC . . . is on order at GSU. December 9 will find Robert Hindsley at the podium, conducting the Community Symphonic Band in its winter concert. The 8 p.m. program will include music by Creston, Saint-Saens, Curnow, Anderson, Moussourgsky and Rimsky-Korsakov. On Dec. 11 the pace changes with the GSU Composers Concert, featuring avant-garde music. There will be compositions by Beverly DeFries-D'Albert, Professor Richard McCreary, Bethe Hagens, Steve Kaganove, and Anton Webern. Music on this program will combine tapes, film, electronic sounds and live musicians. Performance time is 7:30 p.m. Both concerts are in the Music Recital Hall and are free to the public.

THE CHILD CARE CENTER . . . will be open December 15 through December 24, 1980 from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. The change in hours is due to the lack of requests from staff members to have the Center open in the evening. Any problems, call x2552.

A SPECIAL BULLETIN

FROM CENTRAL DUPLICATING

CENTRAL DUPLICATING will release details of it's new high speed "System 5 Printing Center" at the Business Office Colloquium to be held on Wednesday, December 10, 1980. This added potential for better service to the university will be fully discussed and an introduction to supplementary information will be described in detail.

The new job request format designed to simplify the printing request procedure will be distributed and discussed.

A new streamlined procedure that will affect university staff and faculty members will be presented for analysis.

There will also be a preview of additional services, now in the planning stage, to be implemented in the next six months.

We urge anyone who deals with Central Duplicating to take this opportunity to acquaint yourself with the new procedures.

We look forward to seeing you.
