Bella Abzug, Former Congresswoman

GSU POLITICS IN '80s COURSE TO FEATURE BELLA ABZUG LECTURE . . . Bella Abzug, one of the most colorful and popular women on the recent American political scene, will present a public lecture at GSU on "Politics of the '80s" at 8:00 p.m. on March 12. Abzug, a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from New York--1970 to 1976, has been active in local and national politics and a leader in such causes as civil rights, women's rights and world peace for more than three decades. Admission to the lecture is $2.00 for the general public, $1.00 for GSU faculty and staff, GSU Alumni Association members and senior citizens. GSU students are admitted free. The lecture is presented as part of a course by the same title being offered by GSU.

AN OPEN HOUSE . . . for area nurses, nursing students and others interested in health care will be held in the GSU School of Health Professions on March 12 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. To celebrate Illinois Nurses' Week, March 8-14, this year's theme is "Toward Better Health Care: Nurses Make the Difference." The Nursing Program is sponsoring this event, which will be held in B1501. Refreshments will be served.

Walnut, aluminum laminate done by Peg Wagner.

"CONTINUANCE" . . . an exhibition of sculpture by graduate student Peg Wagner, is this month's show in the CAS Art Gallery. A variety of pieces can be seen, most of which have been done in types of hardwoods. "Walnut Silken Trio" plus an oak and walnut laminate exemplify Wagner's artistic statements. The CAS Gallery is located in B Wing adjacent to B Lounge and is open 10:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday-Thursday.

GSU WORKSHOP COMBINES STARS, PLANTES AND PIZZA . . . Teachers who would like to make the study of the heavens more interesting for their students may find "Astronomy in the Classroom" both astronomically and gastronomically fulfilling. The workshop scheduled for March 20, 21 and 22 coincides with the vernal equinox, when Jupiter and Saturn will be at their closest to the earth and the moon will be full. Part of the curriculum will be nighttime observation of the stars, planets, constellations and galaxies. According to the instructor, Dr. J. Harvey Hensley, that is an excellent excuse for a vernal equinox pizza. The workshop will meet 7:00-10:00 p.m. on Friday, March 20; 8:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m. on Saturday; and end with a 1:00-5:00 p.m. session on Sunday. There will be astronomy materials, demonstrations of equipment, films and lectures. The workshop will be held rain or shine. One hour of credit is available. Advance registration deadline is March 12. For further information, contact Joyce Newman, x2121.

GSUings . . . DAVID BURGESS (CAS) lecturing at a University of Nairobi Symposium sponsored by the School of Journalism on the topic "African-American Relations" on March 4; on "Ideology and Social Work" at Kenya Institute of Technology on March 6; at the United Theological College on the "Role of Religion in the Black American Struggle"; and developing a book while on sabbatical entitled Social Casework with Third World Minorities in America scheduled for completion in June. . . CHRIS MANHEIM (BPA) being asked to be a panel discussant at the 6th Annual Public Administration Conference on March 19 and being selected group moderator for the Statewide Personnel Administration Research Group . . . LOU MULÉ (CAS) being published in American Biology Teacher; speaking before the South Suburban Geological and Historical Society on the subject of "Using Oral History to Discover Family History," and speaking to the Ecology Club of Moraine Valley Community College on the subject of "Careers in the Environmental Sciences" . . . AKKANAD M. ISAAC (BPS) presenting a paper on "A Recursive Programming Approach for the Conversion of Decision Tables to Computer Programs" at the 1981 Computer Science Conference, Feb. 24-26, St. Louis, Mo.

WOMEN'S HEALTH SUBJECT OF GSU LUNCHEON MEETINGS . . . Marcy Smith, R.N., campus nurse at GSU, will conduct three sessions on women's health during the lunch hour on the Fridays of March 13, April 10 and May 8. The free sessions are open to all interested persons. The first session will deal with fact and fiction of feminine health and hygiene, including discussion of toxic shock syndrome. The April 10 meeting will be about sexually transmitted diseases. In May, Smith will investigate substance abuse of such things as food, alcohol and drugs. Participants are urged to bring brown bag lunches to Room E1108 at 12:00 noon on the three days. For more information, contact Smith at x2141.

STAMPS . . . 15¢ stamps are now available at the Cashier's Office in $3.00 books only.
