Governors State University

From the Office of Communication

Tuesday night President Elaine P. Maimon appeared on the PBS program Chicago Tonight along with the presidents from the University of Illinois, Northeastern Illinois University, and Chicago State University.

To hear what she and the other presidents had to say about the state's budget stalemate, click on the image below:

"I just can't imagine that our leaders would not see that the prosperity of our state depends on strong public universities."

-President Elaine P. Maimon
