A Raisin in the Sun

Presented by GSU Theatre and Performance Studies

November 9, 2014 at 2 p.m.

Evening performances also available

$15

An African-American family on Chicago's South side in the 1950s plans to leave their crowded apartment for a home in Clybourne Park, but their efforts to 'move up' are thwarted by racial intolerance. This award-winning play spotlights divisions that still plague Chicago more than 60 years after its premiere.

The Nutcracker, Salt Creek Ballet

Saturday, December 6, 2014 at 1 & 5 p.m.

A magical tale featuring Tchaikovsky's enchanting score, a brand new set & costumes – along with waltzing flowers, giant mice and the Sugar Plum Fairy. A delightful holiday tradition for all ages!

Take photos with Santa at 3 p.m.

In the Mood

Sunday, April 26, 2015 at 4 p.m.

A retro 1940s musical revue featuring the sensational String of Pearls Big Band Orchestra! Relive the 1940s with a combination of up-tempo big band instrumentals and intimate, romantic ballads. This was the time when the music moved the nation's spirit!
