Catalog description: Analyzes the behavior of people in organizations. discusses organizational behavior, communication, and decision making.

	Nelson, Debra L. and Quick, James Campbell. Organizational Behavior: Foundations, Realities, & Challenges . South-Western, 2000.
---	---

Instructional modality: Correspondence.

Expected student outcomes:
1. Master ideas, theories, and concepts of organizational behavior and be able to discuss behavioral issues in organizations;
2. Enhance ability to learn from experience, to test what is learned against new experience and to extract new learning in a continuing fashion.
3. Develop skills in observing and understanding living and working experiences.
4. Enhance ability to behave effectively in organizational situations.

Written assignments: You must turn in three exercises and three case studies. If you attend the classes, you may subtract one exercise and one case study for each class attended. The three exercises and case studies can be found in the Study Guide. Instructions for completing the exercises and the case studies can also be found in the Study Guide.

In addition, you must also complete the Individual Written Assignment. The directions for completing the Individual Written Assignments are also found in the Study Guide.

All assignments must be typed (double spaced). Do not use folders for your assignments. Simple staple the pages together in the upper left-hand corner. Keep a copy of each assignment in case assignments are lost in mailing. I will notify you of your grade. Assignments themselves will not be returned. Assignments should include the following information at the top of the first page:

Name
Address
Social Security Number
Telephone Number
E-mail address
Date

All assignments should be sent to:

Richard J. Vorwerk
College of Business and Public Administration
Governors State University University Park IL 60466

or sent e-mail to rj-vorwerk@govst.edu or vorwerk@mediaone.net

All assignments should be turned in by Saturday, December 2nd.

Tests: The material covered in the three tests can be found in the text. The tests will be comprised of multiple-choice, true-false, and essay questions. The text will be tested using multiple-choice and true-false questions. The case studies will be tested by essay questions. The questions for the Case Studies will be taken from the questions about each case study in the text. See the Class Schedule for the subject matter for each test. For this semester only, since I am using a new text and the tests must be normed, results of the first test cannot be given until October 4th, the second test until November 1st, and the third test until Dec. 6th. All tests are to be taken by Saturday, December 2nd.

All tests are to be taken at the GSU testing center located in the University's Student Development Office on the first floor near the main entrance. If you reside more than 50 miles from Governors State University, call 708/534-4089 to make arrangements to take your tests. If your tests are to be sent to a proctor, you must make arrangements for the tests to be sent at least two weeks before you plan to take the test. All three tests will be sent at the same time. I advise you to make arrangements to have the tests sent as near the beginning of the trimester as possible. You may, of course, take your tests on campus.

When you are ready for a test on campus, follow these directions:

1. Call for an appointment to take your test at 708/534-4508 at least two business days prior to the test.
2. Be prepared to provide the following information:

a. Your Name
b. Social Security Number
c. Course Title and Reference Number (Organizational Behavior, 108721)
d. The Term (Fall, 2000)
e. The Exact Name and Number of the Test (e.g. Organizational Behavior, Test 1)

The Student Development Office will provide you with a date and start time for your test.

Testing hours: Tuesday through Thursday: 4:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m., Saturday: 8:30 a.m. 12:00 noon

I will send you your grade after you take each test. If you wish to go over your test, call me at 708/534-4957.
