Minutes of September 15 Meeting: Moved, seconded, and passed to approve the minutes as read.

President's Welcome and Comments: President Miller

New Business: Civil Service Senate committees were reviewed and where possible, vacant spots were filled. Additional research is needed to determine the appropriate composition of some committees; Eric will handle. A list of committees and members will be available soon. The Senate received a thank you card from Janet Hart.

Committee Reports:

1 – EAC Report, Debra Boyd: No report. However, we will proceed with recommendation as distributed.

2 – Governance Committee, Eric Nicholson: See New Business.

3 – Civil Service Affairs Committee, Renee Rainey: the Home Demo at Work day earned $660, the Craft Fair brought in $865, and the Bake Sale netted $181. Civil Service Day planning is underway; this year's theme is 'Winter Wonderland' with a color scheme of blue and silver.

4 – Scholarship Committee, Louis Schultz:

In Louis's absence, President Miller led the discussion to consider if the Senate wants to award two scholarships per term or increase the amount of the scholarship. The consensus was that a higher value for the scholarship would be an incentive to apply; it was moved, seconded, and approved to increase the amount of the scholarship to $750. Cindy Matthias will request a meeting of the Scholarship Committee; the Scholarship for this trimester will be awarded if the applicant is approved by the majority of the committee.

5 – Grievance Committee, Karen Stuenkel, Interim Chair: No current grievances.

6 – Finance Committee, Karen Stuenkel:

See President's Welcome and Comments.

7 – GSU Safety Committee, Donna Finn:

Jason Zelek announced that GSU is installing a weather station on the roof to provide warning of bad weather.

Old Business:

None.

Remarks: Bruce Crooks has been invited to our next meeting to take photos of CSS members; these will be used in conjunction with baby photos and bios for the Senate display during December, in the glass case near the theater.

We will request that a GSU e-mail address be created for the Civil Service Senate.

The meeting was adjourned by President Miller at 11:55.
