3-3-2007

Legends of Love

Center for Performing Arts

Follow this and additional works at: http://opus.govst.edu/cpa_memorabilia

Recommended Citation
http://opus.govst.edu/cpa_memorabilia/257

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for Performing Arts at OPUS Open Portal to University Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in Center for Performing Arts Memorabilia by an authorized administrator of OPUS Open Portal to University Scholarship. For more information, please contact opus@govst.edu.
Special Appearance by JORDAN CARROLL
as Barry White

Say the name Barry White and you’d be hard pressed to follow it with the name of any other recording artist with such a huge, cross-sectional following. He was at home appearing on Soul Train, guesting with a full band on The Today Show, featured on Alley McBeal and introduced to a new generation in cartoon form in various episodes of The Simpsons. Jordan also often performs Barry White as part of Best In Entertainment's MOTOWN TRIBUTE.

Legends of Love

www.bestinentertainment.net

Saturday March 3, 2007

2006/2007 Season sponsored in part by a generous grant from The Illinois Arts Council
Joe Tirrito as Elvis

Joe was born on the South Side of Chicago. His parents instilled in him a love of music. The hours he spent with his truck driving father, listening to Elvis Presley, prepared him for his career as a Tribute Artist. He has been performing his Tribute for about 24 years. In that time he has traveled to Japan, the Bahamas, Las Vegas, Lake Tahoe, Washington, DC, and Memphis to showcase his talents. He has appeared on the Oprah Winfrey Show, the Geraldo Rivera Show, and was featured in the National Enquirer. Listen to Joe Tirrito perform his tribute to Elvis and you understand that the man truly loves the music he sings. His breathtaking rendition of "Unchained Melody", sung a cappella, will pull an audience to its feet with applause. Joe’s enormous energy electrifies his audiences and instills in them the joy he feels in his music. His magnetism thrills old and young alike.

John Truncali as Tom Jones

In addition to the numerous impressions featured in his show, John’s own singing voice has been described as an exciting blend of Tom Jones and Engelbert. Reviewers of John’s shows have named him "The Italian Tom Jones" and "The Man of Endless Voices". He has also been billed as "The One Man Legends Show". In July, 2000 and 2001 John’s Voices Of The Night show was featured at Milwaukee’s Festa Italiana. Other show venues have been throughout the USA as well as tours in Canada and Europe. John has performed on touring cruises out of Tampa, Florida, as well as at The Ocean Reef Club and The House Of Blues, in Key Largo, Florida.

Bob Stewart as Rod Stewart

Stewart, originally from London and cousin to rock star and latter-day classic tunes crooner Rod Stewart, has been performing since age 17, and has seen the world from the stage, so to speak, along with the people and places that have fitted the times through which he has moved gracefully. "I love doing this," Stewart says of performing, "It’s great!" He records on Capitol Records Label and has also played with Richard Santana, a cousin of guitar wizard Carlos Santana. Bob is friends with Eagles’ guitarist Joe Walsh, and keeps in touch with cousin Rod. His impersonation of his cousin, which includes the raspy voice, accent and hairstyle, is undeniably masterful, particularly when he sings on bended knee during Stewart’s famous "Hot Legs".

Rob Garrett as Neil Diamond

Like his legendary counterpart, Rob was born and grew up in New York City, learning to play the guitar at age 14. His main influences while growing up were Elvis, the Beatles, and quite naturally Neil Diamond. In 1974 he moved to Las Vegas along with his parents and younger brother. "There are many people who would like to but never get the chance to see Neil Diamond perform. I love the challenge of re-creating the performances of this great musical legend, who I hope still has many years of performances left in him," said Rob.