BOG SPEAKS TO INNOVATIVE BA DEGREE...following BHE tentative proposal on Lincoln State University program for innovative and experimental higher education. BOG, in a resolution, expressed concern for continued state financial support and encouragement of its innovative system-wide BA degree. The resolution called attention "to the fact that present programs do provide alternative modes of education and the initiative they represent offers a bright promise for the future. In addition to whatever else may be implemented in Illinois, this Board believes that these programs of the Board of Governors' universities must receive continuing state support in order to maximize benefits of existing alternative programs and to encourage and stimulate additional constructive responses from all of higher education. Institutions which by history and philosophy have been innovative and experimental should be encouraged by financial and moral support to continue this work...It would be a costly and tragic error if the state were to take the stance that innovation and experiment would only be perceived and funded in Lincoln State University."

UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY FACULTY-AT-LARGE ELECTION...coming up, to fill position left vacant by TOM CLEAVER (CEAS), who will be professor of science education at Univ. of Texas, San Antonio. Petitions may be obtained from Acad. Affairs starting March 1.

DRIVING MAY BE HAZARDOUS TO YOUR HEALTH...It is possible that a stretch of Stuenkel Rd. may be closed because it is unsafe for motorists, said Mrs. Barbara Triche, chairman of Park Forest South public works commission. The village would close the road, which is too expensive and impractical to keep patching up. Previous attempts to keep the strip between Governors Hwy. and Crawford Ave. in good condition have been futile, since it is still being used for heavy equipment, and repairs would continue to be needed. Roadwork done now could only be temporary and a waste of taxpayers' money, she stated. Motor fuel tax and other monies used for road maintenance are low, and there are major plans for the road in the near future. She suggested that the road remain closed until the public works dept. has made repairs and feels the road is once again passable. (Note: as this issue went to press, the developer, New Community Enterprises, had taken the hole thing seriously and is repairing the road.)

GSU IN THE MAGAZINES...The full page ad about GSU appearing in Chicago regional subscriber editions of Time, Newsweek, U.S. News and World Report, and Sports Illustrated will again make the round in March. If you subscribe to Time, check the March 5 issue; Sports Illustrated on March 12 and Newsweek and U.S. News on March 26. The ad was provided to GSU without charge via the Office of Communications.

ON THE SAME SUBJECT...Pres. Daniel G. Kaplan, First Bank of Park Forest South, wrote a complimenting letter to BILL ENGBRETSON after he saw the ad in Newsweek.

DOWN WITH DUSTY BOOK SHELVES...GSU received a $5,000 grant from the Council on Library Resources for a research project in library technology. JOE MEREDITH (LRC) is principal investigator. Funds will support a pilot phase of microform technology: developing, testing, and evaluating an economical system for using selective dissemination microfiche (SDM) service on a local university-wide basis.

FREE ENVIRONMENTAL WORKSHOPS...for community leaders of south suburbs begin this week, sponsored by CEAS and WILLCO Council of Governments. They'll be Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.; participants attend one day a week. Dates are: Wednesdays: March 7, 21; April 4, 18; May 23. Fridays: March 16, 30; April 13, 27; May 18.

HELPS FOR HELPING MOTHERS...According to BOB KREBS ( R & I ) a new guide, Federal Funds for Day Care Projects, lists 50 federal sources of funds that support various aspects of day care projects. There is a single copy available for perusal in R & I.

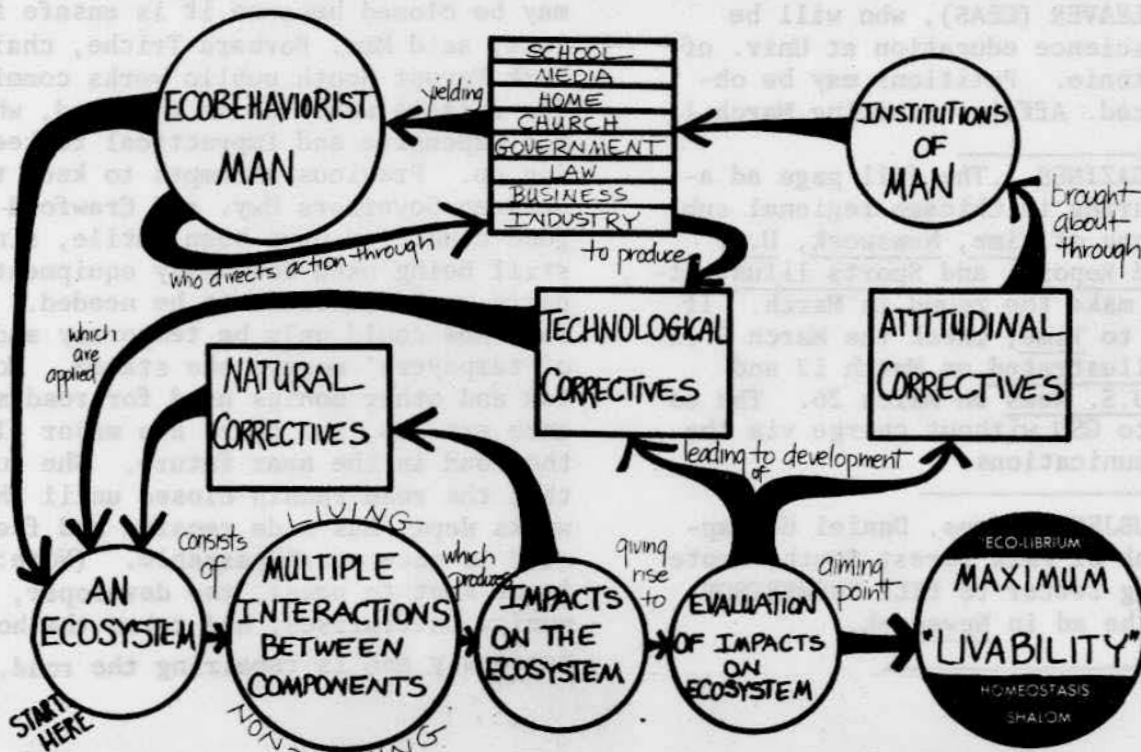

IT'S BEEN SO LONG...DOTTIE LEGGE (LRC) invites GSUers to preview a special 24-page news magazine for returning POWs. Published as a public service, it digests big news events from 1965 to 1972 and goes to each POW at some point in his "return" process (Compliments of the Joliet Herald-News in this area). You'll find it in the magazine display rack in LRC.

EVEN IF THE SNOW WON'T GO...GSU WOMEN have moved on to the next season and will sponsor "Tips for Spring--Easy and Inexpensive Ways to Brighten Your Home," a program presented by Sali Rogoff, president of Sali Rogoff Interiors, Monday, March 5, 8 p.m., Rm. 302. Guests are welcome and refreshments will be served...GSU WOMEN (whose activities are for faculty, staff, students, and wives) also conduct programs for interest groups year-round. These include gardening, gourmet and theatre arts, daytime and evening bridge, arts and crafts, bowling, outdoor recreation, newsletter, etc. Get more information from LOU POLLO, 335-0449 or Ext. 269; LOIS BUTLER, 748-7878; or JOAN LAYZELL, 748-4298.

TWO CIVIL SERVICE OPENINGS...Stores Supervisor: responsible for a centralized facility and/or combination of decentralized store-keeping operations facilities. Requires high school graduation, math and administrative abilities, and 5 years work experience in storeroom, including 2 years as a supervisor. Communications Operator I: to operate central telephone equipment and other communications apparatus under supervision. Should be high school graduate or a grade school graduate with six months experience as Centrex or similar system operator; no hearing and speech defects, pleasing telephone voice.

FOR A RED HOT TIP...on a house in London, call JOAN CAMPBELL (PERSONNEL), ext. 36.

TURNING ON TO ECOLOGY...Already radiating anticipation and excitement is the upcoming ecology show "The Season of Man," scheduled for Tuesday, March 13, 8 p.m. in Rich Central H.S. mini-theater (203rd St. and Governors Hwy.), Olympia Fields. Says DAVE AINSWORTH (ICC): "Emanating from a mood of darkness, changing light patterns, and burning incense, (it) visually overwhelms the audience with multiple projectors and screens showing 800 slides and numerous movie film clips, plus stereo pop and rock music...An individual's own experiences and emotions will determine the meaning and impact of what he sees and hears." The "Light Show," sponsored by CEAS, is free to the general public and students.

OFF.) joining Downers Grove Toastmasters Club...MEL MUCHNIK and MARY LOU CAMPBELL (COMM) attending Great Lakes District meeting of American College Public Relations Association (ACPRA) at NIU.

PORTRAIT OF THE MODERN AMERICAN...He drinks Brazilian coffee out of an English cup and devours French wine while sitting on his Danish furniture after coming home in his German car from seeing an Italian movie, then picks up his Japanese-made ballpoint pen and Hong Kong stationery to write a letter to his Congressman demanding that he do something to stop the flow of gold out of this country!
