Violin virtuoso
Rachel Barton

Saturday June 14, 1997

Generously underwritten by Sage Foundation
RACHEL BARTON

At 22-years-old, native Chicagoan Rachel Barton has emerged as one of the most promising young violin virtuosi in America. First picking up the violin at 3-years-old, Ms. Barton made her professional debut four years later with the Chicago String Ensemble. Since then, she has appeared as a soloist with prestigious ensembles including the Chicago Symphony, the St. Louis Symphony, the Montreal Symphony, the Vienna Symphony, the Belgian National Orchestra and the Budapest Symphony.

Numerous awards and honors have been bestowed on her including a 1992 Gold Medal at the Bach International Violin Competition. Additionally, Ms. Barton was one of the Olympic torchbearers in the Chicago-area torch relay and performed her own arrangement of the national anthem at the first Chicago Bulls Playoff game and at the Democratic National Convention, both in 1996.

Ms. Barton recently released her second CD “Handel: The Sonatas for Violin and Continuo”. Her first compact disc, “Homage to Sarasate,” was released in 1994 and met critical acclaim in over 40 countries. Ms. Barton will release two new CD’s in 1997, one of which features the concertos of 18th-and 19th-century Black composers from Europe and the Caribbean.

Program Notes

Sonata in F major, HWV 370
Adagio
Allegro
Largo
Allegro

Romance, Op. 39
S. Coleridge-Taylor
(1875-1912)

Grand Duo Concertante, S128
F. Liszt
(1811-1886)

Sonata No. 2 (1978)
4. In Memory of Joe Venuti
W. Bolcom
(1938-)

Introduction et Tarantelle, Op. 43
P. de Sarasate
(1844-1908)

Ms. Barton plays the “ex-Lobkowitz” Antonious & Hieronymous Amati of 1617, on generous loan from the Stradivari Society of Chicago. She is accompanied by Patrick Sinozich on the piano.

This 50-minute program is without intermission.
The Center for Performing Arts
at Governors State University

Board of Directors
Mrs. Karen C. Reid, Board Chair
Mrs. Betty Jean Besterfield
Mr. David B. Colmar
The Honorable Aldo DeAngelis
Comptroller Loleta Didrickson
Dr. William Dodd
Mr. James B. Fadim
Ms. Patricia Halikias
Mrs. Joan Krengel
Mrs. Kathleen Field Orr
Mr. Anthony Pasquinelli
Mrs. Priscilla Rockwell
Dr. Paula Wolff, GSU President

Burton E. Dikelsky, Executive Director

The Center for Performing Arts at Governors State University is a premier, state-of-the-art facility for the south metropolitan Chicago area. The Center is a source of cultural and academic creativity dedicated to presenting a wide array of quality performing arts, entertainment and educational programming. For future seasons, The Center continues its mission with an exciting line-up of world-class performers.