WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST
(alphabetical by role)

JAIMIE KELTON (Abeja) recently graduated from The Boston Conservatory. After playing roles varying from an eighty-year-old woman to a five-year-old boy, she's glad to finally return to her true self as a bee in this production of Ferdinand the Bull. Though happiest on the road, she permanently dwells in New York City.

JOHN LLOYD YOUNG (Alejandro) comes straight to Ferdinand from Theatreworks/USA's new production of Sarah, Plain and Tall. Favorite New York credits include the Obie-winning Target Margin Theatre, and "Moritz" in Spring Awakening at Expanded Arts. Education: Brown University. John Lloyd lived in Spain and attended the bullfights. He sends his apologies to bulls everywhere.

JERRY CHAPA (Bull Collector), originally from Austin Texas, has performed around the country. Favorites include Don Lockwood in Singin' in the Rain (2001 Michigan Grand Award – Best Lead Actor/Musical); Chicago (Billy Flynn); A Chorus Line (Paul/ Don); Forever Plaid (Frankie); and The Who's Tommy. He has directed/choreographed, and done extensive commercial and industrial film work.
BENJIE RANDALL (Ferdinand) is excited to be joining Theatreworks/USA in Ferdinand the Bull. Benjie just graduated from the Boston Conservatory in May. There he played a variety of roles from Bobby in Crazy for You to Dr. Frankenfurter in The Rocky Horror Show. This performance is dedicated to the memory of Mychael Adair-Lynch.

TONY MELSON (Moe) received his BA in Theatre from Yale University in 2000. He’s previously toured in children’s theatre shows with National Theatre of the Performing Arts. Some of his favorite roles have included Richie in A Chorus Line, Hud in Hair, and Linus in You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown.

MARISA GUIDA (Ortega) is thrilled to be a part of the Theatreworks/USA family in Ferdinand the Bull. She has spent the past two years performing at Busch Gardens Williamsburg as a singer, actor, dancer, and puppeteer. Originally from Buffalo, NY, Marisa has also been seen in Tony & Tina’s Wedding.

SARA JARAMILLO (Stage Manager) is pleased to return to Theatreworks/USA this spring. She has previously stage managed Theatreworks’ productions of Jason and the Golden Fleece, Rumona Quimby, The Boxcar Children, and Les Misérables. She recently worked as the PSM for the Mountain Playhouse’s production of Great Expectations. She has also worked for A Traveling Jewish Theatre and Marin Shakespeare Company in San Francisco and for Utah Musical Theatre, Salt Lake Acting Company, and Pioneer Theatre Company in Salt Lake City.
