THE "RIDE ALONE" TOUR

An evening of Stand-Up Comedy accompanied by selected artwork from
Bill Maher's new book
*"When You Ride Alone,
You Ride with bin Laden."*

Welcome to what I hope will be a special evening of entertainment for you.

For over a year now, the American government has been telling its citizens that we're in a war, but apparently one we can win so easily that the homefront is asked to do little more than shop, eat out and travel. In earlier wars, the government wasn't afraid to ask its citizens – often through the medium of the wartime propaganda poster – to sacrifice: to curb travel, plant a victory garden, save tin, not let loose lips sink ships, etc. Our pandering government of today wouldn't dream of creating posters informing Americans of what they could actually do to help, so I decided I would.

The thirty-three posters you'll see in my new book "When You Ride Alone, You Ride with bin Laden," are a sincere attempt to point citizens in directions where they can actually help.

Thank you for coming, and I've missed you, too.
