HUDSON VAGABOND PUPPETS, incorporated in 1980 as a not-for-profit company, creates larger-than-life puppetry and mask programs designed to fit into the school curriculum as well as to entertain children and their families. Our performers are professional dancers and actors. Clad in black, the puppeteers borrow from the traditional Japanese Bunraku style of puppetry, becoming mere shadows of the enormous figures they bring to life. HVP performs more than 150 times per year for over 80,000 students, teachers, and families throughout the country. We perform in concert halls, schools, theaters, festivals, colleges, and major performing arts centers including The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Lincoln Center Institute, Orange County Performing Arts Center, The Broward Center for the Arts, The Tilles Center for the Performing Arts, and the New Jersey Performing Arts Center. Narrated ballets are a specialty of the company. Our puppets have danced with symphony orchestras including the Little Orchestra Society, the Phoenix Symphony Orchestra, the Wheeling W. VA Symphony, the St. Louis Symphony, the Detroit Symphony, The Williamsport Symphony Orchestra, and the United States Military Concert Band at West Point. HVP receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts, the County of Rockland and Rockland Community College. This event is made possible with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, a state agency. HVP gratefully acknowledges support from the Arts Fund of Rockland, a project of the Arts Council of Rockland.
