CLOSINGS . . . for the GSU Thanksgiving holiday will include Thursday and Friday, November 27 and 28, 1980. Classes will not be held on Saturday, November 29, 1980, unless the instructor makes special arrangements to hold them. The University Library will be closed on Saturday, November 29, 1980. Other scheduled activities will be held November 29 and 30. The YMCA at GSU will close Thanksgiving Day only, and will be open for the remainder of the holiday weekend. Christmas holiday will include December 25 through January 4, 1981. The regular end-of-December payday will be January 5, 1981, but paychecks may be personally picked up on Wednesday, December 31, 1980 between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at the Cashier's office. Identification may be required to pick up checks. The YMCA at GSU will be closed December 24, 25, and 31 and January 1. It will be open the remainder of the Christmas holiday season.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS . . . A December 5 deadline for the GSU Winter Trimester has been set for submitting activities information to Bob Jaynes of University Relations. Please submit the name of the event, date, time, place, guest speaker, featured artist and other critical information. To meet the deadline, incomplete info should be sent, with details to follow when available. It is better, for example, to list a lecture with "speaker to be announced" than not to list it at all.

THE GSU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION . . . is sponsoring a series of free workshops for GSU graduates on "Career Alternatives and Life-Style Choices: A Workshop for Empowering the Self." They will be held on Saturdays, December 6 and 13, January 24 and 31, February 21 and 28, and March 14 and 21, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The workshops, coordinated by University Professor Kenneth van Doren, will deal with problems of identifying personal skills, traits and abilities and learning how to best utilize them in a profession or job opportunity. Some field work will be required between the two class sessions. For further information, contact Ginni Burghardt, Alumni Director, at x2419.

"PHARMACOLOGY ISSUES" . . . will be offered as a workshop through the School of Health Professions on consecutive Wednesday evenings from November 19 to December 10, 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. Dr. Thomas Aigner, research associate and instructor in psychiatry at the University of Chicago will outline a systematic description of the various groups of drugs and discuss their indications and contraindications, mechanisms of action, side effects, toxicity, antidotal treatment and other pharmacologic peculiarities. The workshop is aimed at the health professions practitioner to provide a practical knowledge of the various aspects of drug activity. For further information, contact Sharon Green in Special Programs, x2549.

CHICAGO INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL . . . has awarded a Gold Plaque in the documentary category to GSU graduate student Jean de Segonzac for his film "Anya at 5," portraying a 5-year old girl's birthday party. In addition, Ramazan Ajdini and Segonzac have been awarded a Silver Plaque (same category) for their joint production of their film "Right to Strike," a documentary on Chicago's fire-fighters' strike. Both films were produced as graduate projects under the direction of Marian Marzynski, University Professor of Media Communications. This year marks the first time GSU film producers have entered this competition, and consequently the first time they have received awards.

STATE-WIDE CONFERENCE . . . for Increasing the Participation of Minorities in Vocational Education will be held November 13-15 at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago. Conference subjects will include issues concerning the role of minorities in vocational education and presentations will be made by nationally known leaders on subjects in that field. Registration at the Hilton will begin Thursday, November 13, 1980 at 6:00 p.m. and continue through Friday, November 14 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The registration fee is $10. All interested GSU students, faculty and staff are invited to attend. For further information, contact Occupational Ed. Coordinator Joyce Kennedy, x2527 or x2589.

JUMPER CABLES . . . will be available to students, staff and faculty as of Monday, November 17, 1980 in the Student Activities Office. A drivers license or other form of ID will be held until return of the cables.

LOST AND FOUND . . . articles will be on file in the Student Activities Office.
